not to keep any one out of The

is to let if you do not advertise? Try the World's Index.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TEURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CLINCHY'S LAST DAY.

The Veteran Captain Retires from the Police Force.

Several Other Captains Expected to

Intend to Resign.

BROOKLYN EDITION EVENING WORLD---ONE FOR MURDER. ADJOURNMENT. treet, Annie brought a girl named Blanche JUFOR. LIVED WITH WALDEN BEFORE TREIR MARRIAGE. HELD

First Witness in Her Own Behalf in the Murder Trial.

Almost Carried to the Stand by One of Her Lawyers.

Claims to Have Been Brutally Used by the Man She Killed.

There was a rush for admittance this morning to the Court of Oyer and Terminer, where looking Annie Walden is on trial for the murder of her boy husband, James Walden. The court officers had all they could do to handle the crowd and maintain order.

MRS. WALDEM'S FIXED ATTITUDE.

Mrs. Walden waiked down to the Courtouse with a deputy sheriff and was led to a lat facing the bench. The slight, girlish dozen of her female friends came into court do took seats close by her, prepared to offer the fainting spells to which Mrs. Walden the were went home.

Walden flat on an occasion when you were present?"

"My husband and I were eating clams with Jimmie and Annie Walden, and Jimmie and said: "Annie took up the carving knife and said: "I should like to use this." Jimmie laughed a little, my husband took the knife away from her and then we went home. "It with the described how Annie appeared at the door of the Thirty-eighth street house the light of the shooting and saked for him the right of the shoot of her coal. Juror Vogel, a clothier, asked if the coat opened like the ordinary woman's coat, from the right. and took seats close by her, prepared to offer their assistance in the event of a recurrence of the fainting spells to which Mrs. Walden

Annie Walden was a woman of weak will but her girlhood among the people who frequent the race tracks, and a messenger who makes his living by placing bets for people on the race tracks told that he had placed many bets for this woman when she was known as The messenger was Edward C. Derringer, fied that on the Saturday before the murder Walden got back from Baltimore, and that he went with him to the flat at 229 West Fortieth street, where Jimmie Walden and the girl who claims that she was his wife said the witness. "She went out about 7.30 o'clock and did not come back till Monday morning. Jimmie asked her where she'd been, and she said 'to Philadelphia.' But

Next day he won $400 at the races. He take that to your Thirty-eighth street girl.'

"All right, I will," said Walden, and he went

Two hours later she called him out of Walter Green's house in Thirty-eighth street and shot him twice.

Jeunic Delia McBride, the first witness to-day, is a little girl of twelve years, who lives in the flat-house 229 West Fortieth street. She related that the couple alternated between ovemaking and quarrelling, and that one day a week or more before the shooting two men were in the hall carrying a trunk, and Annie came out of her room and huried a pitcher at

This was the occasion when Walter Green and an expressman went after Jimmie Walden's trunk—the time when Walden decided to give Annie up and go to board with Walter Green's mother-in-law, Mrs. Sam Harris, of 808 West Thirty-eighth street.

Blauche Green, the wife of Walter Green, was next called to the stand. Mrs. Green is a small-featured woman, with a prepossessing face, lighted by large dark eyes that are streked by black brows and shaded by long,

12 Vesh by a man named Stewart in Philadelphia when I was only seventeen."

23 Did you ever take that foul villain's
name?"

24 No. sir."

heavy isshes.
She testified that she had known Jimmie band's triend and boarded with their family knew her first as Annie Graham, then as Kitty Delmar and then as Kitty Marshall."

MRS. WALDEN'SSTORY Marshall came home from the races drunk once, and that she played a joke on Jimmie by nutting Lenn Marshall trick by nutting Lenn Marsha

DEPUTY WARDEN BROWN.

Mrs. Green related the story of how Annie

He asked : " How long have you been mar-opened like the ordinary the left, or from the right.

The witness thought it must have opened like a woman's—from the right—but she would not swear to it and was dismissed.

THE DEFENSE OPENS ITS CASE.

This closed the case for the prosecution, and Mr. Howe began his detense of Annie Walden by an address to the jury.

During the recital of the witness Annie Walden had gradually sunk lower and lower in her seat until she was almost prostrate in the arms of her aunt, Mrs. Dehning.

"I say to you, gentlemen," said Mr. Howe, "that I stand here defending a poor, weak little woman, more sinned against than sinning. She was actually starving when this awful tragedy occurred. Sae had not a penny in the world, and I am here without hope or expectation of any pecuniary reward for my services."

All of the half dozen female triends of Annie Walden wept in their handkerchiefs at this. Mr. Howe characterized the witnesses for the prosecution as "miserable creatures,

"That day they quarreled again, and she said, 'suppose you were to fall off that chair and never get up again.'
"I wish to God I would,' says Jimmie, and than she says: "Look out, or some time you will.'"
When Jimmie Walden went out that day he refused to tell her where he was going, and, according to young Derringer she said:
"If you go around to that Thirty-eighth street house, I swear by my dead sister's grave I will kill you.

THE STORY OF THAT MARKIAGE IN CAMDAN.
Mr. Howe told the story of the prisoner's Mr. Howe told the s

Episcopal Church.

Then Mr. Howe paid his compilments to the Harrises and Greens, and said that James Walden squandered his money in the house kept by them and neglected to provide for his wire.

THE DEPENDANT CALLED TO THE STAND.

weeping.

"What is your name?" began Mr. Howe.
The paie face was turned toward the florid lawyer, the full lips parted and a voice small and shrill replied:

"Annie Walden."

Where were you born and how old are "In Carlisle, Pa., I am twenty-one years

"Were you ever married?"
"I was. To Jimmie Walden, in September, at Camden."

Walden."

"Did you ever go by any other name than your own? Speak right up. I want the jury to know all about it. We have nothing to conceal."

What was it that the defendant told you about Lem Marshall?" asked Mr. Wellman.
"She told me that her husband and Lem by putting Lem Marshall into her bed and putting Jimmle to sleep on a couch in the

ANNIE HAD THREATENED BLANCHE.

"Since a year last March."

"Your name is Blanche. Was it ever anything else!" Insinuatingly.

"No, sir; only Blanche Harris."

"You have attended the races with this little woman?"

"Yes, sir: lots of times before I was married." married."
"Hundreds of times, haven't you? How many hundreds of times?"
"Well, perhaps not more than ninety times."
"You had a quarrel with this little woman "You had a quarrel with this little woman once, dion't you? And she called you a name and made a threat. What did she say?"
"She called a bad woman, and said she'd have my mother's house pulled."
Mrs. Green declared that she bad no feeling against Annie Walden, and then Mr. Wellman saked:
"What happened at the dinner table at the Walden flat on an occasion when you were present?"

THE DEPENSE OPENS ITS CARE.

Mr. Howe spoke forty-five minutes, and then sent annie Waiden to the stand as her own first witness.

The woman staggered as she arose from her chair, and Joe Moss jumped to her side just in time to save her from failing. He led her around the jury box to the witness chair, which she reached shaking like an aspen and weening.

name?"
"No, sir."
"When did you come to New York?"
"When I was sineteen years old."
"Did you ever live with any other man than Ste vart?" No. sir; not until I was married to Jimmie

"Did you ever go by any other name than your own? Speak right up. I want the jury to know all about it. We have nothing to conceal."

"Yes, I went by the name of Kittle Marshall and Annie Delmar."

"Tell the jury slowly what happened after you married Jimmie Walden and you wont to live in this flat at 279 West Fortieth street and how Jimmie Walden acted."

The witness turned towards the jury and over, for smeaking and sharing. Zee, let be. "."

"I lived with my husband about two weeks before we were married at the flat No. 229 West Fortieth street. Then we went to Phila-delphia to attend the Gioucester races. We stopped with a man named Bothwell then, and he lost a great deal of money on the races.

and he lost a given dent over to Camden races.

"Then one night we went over to Camden and we were married. The next day I was tirred, and he said he would go to the races alone. He had no money, but I had some and I gave him of it freely.

"He did not go to the races, as I expected, but to the poolrooms.

alone. He had no money, but I had some and i gave him of it freely.

"He did not go to the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the races, as I expected, but to the pool of the could never he do deed the could pawn if we needed it."

Coming down to the life in the Fortieth street flat Annie Walden sald:

"My husband went out every night, coming home at 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. When I asked him where he'd been he would say 'out with the boys. He most always brought some of the boys home with him.

"I never went to the races but three times after we were married. I did not go, as that lady (Mrs. Blanche Green) stated, to invite gentlemen to my house. I went to try and win money on the races. My husband was sick abed and we needed the money.

"My husband gave me little if any money after I was married to him. I walted on him night and day: never left him while he was sick until that day. He was better, but the doctors said he must not get out of bed.

"We needed money. He tried to get money any way. He wrote to Mr. Littlefield, who was married to his sister, but he replied that he had not hing less than $100 bills. Walter Green owed him money."

"Do you mean Green, the people's witness?" asked Mr. Howe.

"I certainly do."

"After my husband came from Baltimore he was never the same man. Walter Green came often and took him away. He would come and get my husband out of bed, and say 'Come over to the house; the old lady wants to see you."

"I objected to his going to Mrs. Harris's house, and when I asked him why he went there he always said Mrs. Harris had some horses she wanted him to sell, and I asked him why he aiways went into Mrs. Harris's parior when he went on business, but he did not answer."

At this point a recess was taken.

IT WILL RAIN ALL DAY.

The Baseball Cranks Neglected Apply for Fair Weather. Local Forecaster Dunn looked sad as he sat in his weather office, on the top of the Equitable building, this morning.

"If I had only known," said he to an Even-Yorks and Brooklyns were to play ball at home to-day they could have had fair weather just as well as not. But they did not say a word to me, and now the rain machine is at work and it cannot be stopped in time for the boys to play ball.

"It will rain all day, that's certain. It may clear off to-morrow morning and be fair in the atternoon. It now looks as if it would be clear Saturday, 100.

"The storm to-day is central over the lower part of Lake Michigan. It is moving in a northeasterly course over the lake regions. It is raining in all the States of the lake region, the Ohio valley and the Middle Atlantic and New England States. The rainfail is very heavy in the Ohio Valley. The prospects are good for a heavy fall of rain hers."
There is considerable for along the Atlantic Coast north of Hatteras and heavy east winds prevail. The temperature this morning at 8 o'clock was 47 degrees. The hottest place in the Union yesterday was key West, at 78 degrees, and the coidest Denver, with 18 degrees. at home to-day they could have had fair

CUT HIS HEAD NEARLY OFF.

Waiter William Green Found Dead in His Furnished Room. At 11 o'clock this morning a woman rushed nto Hoboken Police Headquariers and asked ck and did not come back till Monday paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street paramours, mistresses and lechers. Totators that a policeman be sent to 110 Third street.

missioners of Accounts, who have been in-vestigating him. He replied to the charges against nim last Monday, and yesterday he sailed for Europe without notifying the Commissioners.
The evidence at the hearing reflected so ri-ously on Mr. Conklin, and if the Commission ers should recommend that legal action be taken against him he could not be reached

FOR SHOOTING THE RABBI.

Joseph Mazzarki, Dr. Mendes's Assallant, Is on Trial. Trial was begun to-day before Recorde

Smyth, in General Sessions, of Joseph Maz-zarki, who, March 5 last, shot and wounded Hov. Dr. H. P. Mendes. Evidence for the prosecution was concluded before recess. ONLY TWO ARRESTS SO FAR.

Officials Take No Open Steps in the Customs Fraud Cases.

No more arrests had been made up to noon o-day in connection with the alleged Custom House frauds, and it was said at United States Commissioner Shields's office that no indict-ments in these cases were returned to-day by the Federal Grand Jury.

Cincinnati Carpenters Make Terms. McGuire, of the National Brotherhood of arpenters, has brought the carpenters and their bosses to an agreement for two years to come. The working day is to be nine hours and the wages will be 30 cents an hour for the first six months and 33% cents an hour for the succeeding eighteen months. Lenwood's Reception.

Pianist Friedheim Charged with Killing Bartenhauser.

Fatal Affray in the Lobby of Amberg's Theatre.

The Dead Man Said by His Friends to Have Had Heart Disease.

Tax Rate for the Current Year virtuoso and one of the favorite pupils of Franz Liszt, was charged in Yorkville Court this morning with the crime of homicide. Wood, who arrested him, Friedheim went to Amberg's Theatre, in Irving place, about 9.30 last evening and insisted upon entering without a ticket. He was apparently intoxicated August Bartenhauser, the doorkeeper, refused to admit him, and when Friedheim tried to push by shoved nim back. A scuffle by ushers, and Friedhelm was ejected from

He tried to get back several times, and arrested him and took him to the East Twenty-second street station, where a charge of disorderly conduct was made against him. tenhauser a violent, blow during the scuffle.

was taken very ill. Bartenhauser to be extremely nervous. He trembled violently and was very pale. Dr. Denbardt, who was in the audience, was called out, and after examining Barten-

Denbardt, who was in the audience, was called out, and after examining Bartenhauser said he ought to go home.

A cab was summoned and Usbers Handstott and Breidig were told by Manager Amberg to take the sick man to his home at 114 East Eleventh street.

When they arrived at the house Bartenhauser had become unconscious. He was carried into the house, which was that of his sister-in-iaw, and laid on the floor, near the door. Dr. Shepherd, a neighbor, was summoned, and when he saw the man he pronounced him dead.

There was slight foam, flecked with blood, upon the dead man's lips.

When officer Wood returned to his post he was informed that Bartenhauser was dead, and he immediately want back to the station and informed the Sergeant at the dask of this and he immediately went back to the station and informed the Sergeant at the deak of this fact, and the charge against Friedheim was changed to one of homiods.

No one visited Friedheim during the night, but this morning Manager Amberg was at court with Freidheim's wife and a female friend and three of his ushess.

Said Manager Amberg to an Evening Wosl.p reporter: "There is no reason to believe that Friedheim intended to harm Bartenhauser, and if he had not been the worse for drink he would never have created a disturbance.

for drink he would never have created a disturbance.

"I understand he had been spending the early part of the evening at Lienaus, in Fourteenth street, with some friends, and came over to the theatre to see a friend who was in the audience.

"I know Mr. Friedneim very well. He has free entree to the theatre.

"Bartenhauser has had heart disease for a long time. His brother died of it about five months ago, and Bartenhauser himself has just recovered from a four months' illness.

"He had not been back in the theatre more than two weeks. He had been in my employ for ten years, and was a single man. He was about fitty years old.

Friedneim is thirty-one years old, rather stout, and has a smooth, ruddy face, and his straight black hair droops in long locks over his coat collar. He wears gold-framed eye-glasses. His friends all say that he is one of the mildest and most inoffensive of men ordinarily.

He was born in Russis, and from 1879 be was a simmine wept out of the room, she told me she had been hitting the pipe in an optim join in Forty-second street.

"Tuesday night she said she was going out with a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, thut has a lady friend. He said she was, the prostrate figure in black, "the prostrate figure in black, "the said structure of the stell was, and he struck her several times.

"Then she went out and stayed till 10.30 Wedneeday morning. I was with Jimmie at the house all the time. She told me, while he was in the bathroom, that somebody had sent her a queer present. That was Thursday.

"Then the pleader referred to the Gutten, burg race track as "that sink of indulty." He was in the bathroom, that somebody had sent her a queer present. That was Thursday.

"The a revolver," says she, 'and there was beaten; beaten twelve times; "The a revolver," says she, 'and there was eard on that told me to use it."

"That day they quarrelled again, and she said, 'suppose you were to fall off that he is one of the mident from fostor, where he has been gring concerts in various cities in the fine of a main. Congealed blood half an inch thick surrounded the body and a keen-edged razor the salidity on the floor. A horrible sight met his gaze.

Stretched full length on the floor, with the head almost entirely served, was the body of a main. Congealed blood half an inch thick was a pupil till the latter death. He had a limbs the body and a keen-edged razor in the salidity on the floor. The said salid blood half an inch thick was a pupil till the latter of the stell was a pupil the said the time. The salidity on the floor, and a keen-edged razor. The salidity on the floor, and a keen-edged razor in the salidity on the floor. The latter had a limbs at the body and a keen-edged razor in the fall of the management of the stell was a proper and Justice Taintor proceeded with the examination.

Judge Taintor postponed the case, so that Friedlein might get counsel. Later, Lawyer Thomas Murray, who has been retained as Friedlam's counsel, arrived and Justice Taintor proceeded with the ex-amination.

The witnesses were George Handstadt, Otto Hess and Andrew Breidig, all attaches of the theatre. None of them saw any blows struck either by Friedham or Bartenhauser, and it appeared that the latter remained at the theatre more than hair an hour after the fracas occurred before he started for home. Justice Taintor refused to entertoin an application for bail, and held Friedhelm to await the action of the Coroner.

Last Day Notes at Albany. Governor Flower signed Senator McCarren's bill tempting Brooklyn City bends from taxation. Senate passes bill appropriating $100,000 for Supplementary Supply bill appropriating $6,000 Assembly concurs in Senate amendments to slep's bill making day's work ten bours in steam The Assembly defeats, by vote of 79 mays to 22 yeas. Cantor's bill making it a misdemeanor to separate husband and wife.

The Assembly passes Kelly's bill placing boiler inspectors and superintendent, in Brooklyn, so the uniformed police force. Canals to Open May L ALBANY, April 21.—Superintendent of Pubto Works Hannan has ordered that the Six ocean steamers are waiting to-day to gers, the greatest number ever known to have been brought to New York in one day. Weather Forecast.

STOP PAYING DOUBLE PRICES. "CLOVER LEAY" California Wines, equal to Chapter 342—Relative to improvem imported. All designs. Agency, 11 Endoon et. in Ace Englishes.

over the coast and Sound; stationary ten-perature; brick to high easterly winds. For Priday: Clearing in the morning; stationary imperature. For Saturday: Pair, elightly

State Legislature Finishes Its Regular Session.

But is Called to Begin a Special Term Monday Night.

Fixed at $0.00198.

Official Figures in State, County and City Population. ALBANY, April 212-The State Senate adjourned sine die at 12.15 this afternoon. The Assembly adjourned at 12.50. Gov. Flower has issued a proclamation call ing for an extra session to meet Monday night at 8.30 o'clock, by which time Secretary port of the late State enumeration, on which portionment.

In his address to the Senate, before adjournment, Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan said:

"Much harsh criticism has been made in the public prints and elsewhere regarding the work of this Legislature. Through political malice or personal hate the motives and conduct of a legislator have often been misconstrued or misrepresented, but now that the record is complete I challenge comparison of the work accomplished here with that of any other prior legislative body."

He called special attention to the passage of the Constitutional Convention bill, to the securing of a State enumeration and reapportionment of Congress districts; to the honest efforts to settle the much-mooted excise question, and to the passage of numbers of laws which he considered would be of lasting benefit to the State.

THE STATE'S POPULATION.

ecording to the Late Count It Is 0,463,632.

ALBANT, April 21.—The total population of the State, as shown by the recent State enumeration, is 6.483.632, of which 720,000 are credited to New York City.

are credited to New York City.

The following is the population of cities: Albany, 97,120; Cohoes, 93,334; Binghamton, 94,54; Dunkirk, 10,040; Jamestown, 18,617; Eimira, 19,911; Rudson, 9,642; Poughkeepsie, 23,196.
Buffalo, 278,796; Cloversville, 14,694; Watertown, 10,982; Brookiyn, 930,633; Rochester, 144,834; Troy, 64,986; Amsterdam, 18,542; New York, 1801-739; Lockport, 15,088; Rome, 13,638; Utica, 46,608; Syracuse, 91,944; Middletown, 11,613; Newburg, 24,536; Oswego, 21,996; Long Island City, 25,745; Ogdensburg, 11,855; Schenectady, 21,858; Corning, 10,023; Hornelisville, 11,898; Rhaes, 13,450; Kingston, 21,495; Yonkers, 31,410; The following shows the whole number of inhabitants in each county as returned under the rocent State caumeration conducted by Secretary of State Rice: Albany, 107,330; Allegany, 43,131; Broome, 62,791; Cattarragus, 61,776; Cayuga, 62,919; Chemangus, 37,601; Cinton, 45,600; Co-lumbia, 45,205; Cortland, 98,289; Delaware, 45,470; Dutokam, 78,394; Erie, 347,320; Essex, 33,110; Frankin, 36,648; Delaware, 45,470; Dutchess, 78,292; Erse, 347,320; Essex, 33,110; Frankin, 36,481; Futton, 36,479; Genesse 33,434; Green, 31,142; Hamilton, 5,216; Herkimer, 47,480; Jefferson, 70,358; Kings, 908,746; Lewis, 30,244; Livingston, 37,000; Medison, 42,203; Monroe, 200,639; Mourgonsry, 46,078; New York, 1,801,739; Niogora, 64,207; Oneida, 128,756; Onendaga, 150,808; Ontario, 48,718; Orange, 97,581; Or 50.324; Putnam, 14.250; Queen, 141. 805; Rensselaer, 128.000; Richmond, 53,452; Rockland, 83,725; St. Lawrence, 85,254; Sara-toga, 67,231; Schenectady, 34,104; Schoharie, 27,873; Schuyler, 16,861; Seneca, 26,542; Steuben, 82,408; Sulfolk, 63,572; Sulli-van, 31,914; Tiogs, 29,675; Tompkins, 33,612; Uister, 87,652; Warren, 28,618; Washington, 46,458; Wayne, 48,259; West-chester, 145,106; Wyoming, 31,218; Yates, 20,801; total, 6,483,632.

STATE TAX RATE, $.00198.

Legislative Economy Shown by the Comptroller's Flaures

ALBANY, April 21.—In the Assembly the annual tax levy was introduced by Mr. Bush and passed. The tax is $.00198. Last year t was 8.0018714.
The bill was afterwards passed by the Sen ate. When it was presented to that body Mr Cantor said the rate was lowest, with the expeption of that of 1891, since 1856. Last year the rate was low because there was a large surplus in the treasury, and because it had been erroneously estimated that $2,000,000 would be derived from the suc

"Whatever may be said of this Legislature or of its rightful majority," concluded Cantor the people may point with pride to its record of economy." ord of economy."
Comptroller Campbell, in transmitting the bill to the Logislature, called attention to the fact that the total of appropriations for all purposes of Government during the current session is less than that for the last three years.
The appropriations aggregate this year $12,005,004.85. Last year they were $13,070,004.85. In 1890 they were $13,070,881.30, and in 1889 they were $13,720,824.

MAYOR GLEASON SAFE.

The Assembly Kills the Bill to Legislate Him Out of Office.

ALBANY, April 21.—The Assembly has killed Floyd-Jones's two bills legislating Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, out of office. The enacting clause was stricken out o

These Have Become Laws.

ALBANT, April 21.—The following have be ome laws: Chapter 160.—For widening Graham avenue, Long aland City. Chapter : 61 — Prohibiting the hiring of bar-nids.

Anything for a Quiet Life PIECE OF MYERS'S MIND. STEWART WILL CASE ENDED

for the Defense.

most of the witnesses of the defendant were dend, and had then selected his own time and then closed his case, he should not now be

Mr. Secor contended that it was just and presented to the appellate Court for consid-issue of them living.

Judge Pryor dealed this motion, and held that there was nothing to go to the jury and ordered a verdict for the defendants.

NAT GOODWIN SEEKS RELIEF.

He Will Ask the Court to Reduce Bis Wife's Alimony.

Nat. C. Goodwin, the actor, whose wife Nella R. Goodwin is suing him for abandonment in the Supreme Court, has applied to the Court for some relief. A motion in his behalf was to have been argued to-day before Judge band, and says that his wife repeatedly dis-of his West End avenue residence, which she claims as a present. He disputes this, as he says that the house constitutes the greater postponed until next week.

"I thank THE WORLD for its Real-Estate Index," said

a well-known real-estate dealer a few days since. "By it

T made $23,000 in a single

He Denounces Measures Passed Judge Pryor Orders a Verdinot by the Legislature.

its session to-day, he made to an Evenise World reporter statements which will create flow, that the Legislature adjourns to-night," said the Comptroller. "It has passed every-thing that's bed, and Ged knows what it will pass to-night in the last hours of the season.

"The worst measure of all that have gone through is the Harvey Claim bill. It is the worst steal that was ever passed by a Legisvetoed and signed by different Governors and declared unconstitutional by the courts. Now we are threatened with the same through this Legislature because, I believe a great many influential people are inter-ested in it up to their necks. I shall write a veto the measure. Harvey built what it now the Ninth Avenue 5 per cent, of the earnings of the road, to be "The road was a failure, and Harvey's franthen got control of the road.

"The city has received $275,000 in per-

The city also has a judgment for $500,000 against the road, and it is expected that in the future it will pay into the city "If this bill should become a law the city $600,000, lose the $500,000 judgment and the $150,000 percentage money annually."

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Senator Voorhees Heads Their List of Delegates-at-Large. INT ASSOCIATED PRESS, 1

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 21 .- One of the largest Democratic conventions in the history of Indiana convened in this city at 10.30 this forenoon. Every county in the State was represented by a full delegation, and 3,000 enthusiastic moerats from through the State crowded to galleries and aisles. The Convention was held in Tomlinson Hall.

Among the Democratic leaders seated on the stage were: Senators Turple and Yoorhees, Hon. William English, Vice-Presiden tial candidate on the Hancock ticket; Chairman Taggart, of the State Central Committee; 8. P. Sheeria, Secretary of the National Dem-ocratic Committee; Congressmen Jason Brown, George W. Cooper and W. D. Bynum. a dozen ex-Congressmen and all the State delegates to the National Convention.

Overhanging the Chairman's desk were portraits of Cleveland, Gray and Hendricks. Senator Turple was made Chairman.

Senator Turple was made Chairman.

Senator Voorhees, Hugh Dougherty, Charlon
L Jewett and Samuel E Morss, Delegates-atLarge to the National Convention.

The platform reiers to Cleveland as the logical candidate of the Democratic party for 1892 in the Tariff-Reform issue.

It presees for Gray's nomination in case of Cleveland's selection being deemed inexpedient.

transaction."

Follow His Example. Both McCullaghs Deny that The

One result of the shake-up in this? Police Department is the formulation amount of verbal protests on the part satisfied captains, and one captain's r tions is already recorded with pros-similar action on the part of one or to The first captain to forward his read to Hendquarters is William H. Clinck, when the smoke from the official voice cleared away, found himself transfers

A rumor is also shoat in the big w building in Mulberry street that Capta. J. Brogan and Thomas Killiles will to Capt. Clinchy's example, and the rumor implicated the Capta McCullagh, used C McCullagh, the elder, appeared at Heads ters in person this moraing and vagory enied it.
" Whoover said that I was going to the Captain to an Evented World in a bomb in the camp of the lobbyists and tary evidence to-day Alexander Stewart's lice Department wants me to get others who expect to profit by legislation at lawyers rested the case for the plaintiff in have to put me out.

Albany.

Speaking of the Legislature which closes its session to-day, he made to an Eventure some of the estate from ex-Judge Henry Ell-reprimended. I'll doty any one to be reprimended. I'll doly any one to be thing against me. I'm a good soldier go where I'm cent and do my duty." A. T. Stewart, had other issue than A. T. Stewart or other descendants living.

Lawyer Joseph H. Choute moved to dismiss the case, on the ground that the players had felled to prove that he was an act of A. T.

had been on very friendly terms with Mrs. from the Fifth street station to East 73 Martin and knew all about her family. In fifth street. When he reported there for addition to this, he said the presumption was at 6 o'clock last night it was just tw died in 1818, had no issue, as he was then ported at the same station-house very young, and her daughter, Mary Bell, the first duty as a patrolman. Capt. Clinchy's resignation will Capt. Clinchy's resignation will be o capt. Cincays resignation will be commended to morrow, and he will probably call the rel to-night at the Primos street station for the last time. He is forty-eight years old and he terests of justice to reopen the case, and upon his direction the motion was granted and the jury ordered to bring a verdict for the debeen on the force since 1865. He is said to be worth $75,000 or $85,000, and will be on Elibu Root raised the point that it should were no heirs of John Terney, a grandfather of A. T. Stewart, and he had also failed to show the want of descendants of some

He urged that insumuch as the plaintiff had centage from the earnings, which, with in- waited for sixteen years after the death of A. speedily bring in his re life to entombinent in Haffini experiencing the delights of on precinct of which the elegant and Twenty-fifth street station > the Court, so that all the objections referred He wanted the Court to allow him to call the veteran James Balley, so that he could supply the missing proof that Mrs. Martin had no other issue besides A. T. Stewart except James and Mary, and that there is no nergenite in the department, were it see the well-founded suspicion that the analysis in not yet over.

It is believed that to mirrow's mireting of the Commissioners will without whether the commissioners will without whether in consequence, supt. Byrnes is to-day shout the only unruffled man in the Department. Such a proceeding won't to in time with the developments of the lass day or two, and will masterially affect the efficiency of the lispattement, as the acrycants are the real executive officers or of the lass that a suspicious for your of the lispattement, as the acrycants are the real executive officers and to a certain extent have many power for good or evil to the public than the Captains have.

Supt. Byrnes mays that the transfers of certain the capetain will not be so sweeping as in the cases of the captains and warkness. Haymes may that the transfer of certain mee, sepecially those in good standing, may be baseded.

Hereafter, however, no officer will be detailed to apecial ward duty at the request of a captain unless the Superintendont himself certifies to his finance.

The fact that Supt. Byrnes has the record of all detectives among his hours archives has created consternation in that branch of the Department, and there is apprehension by many of the many-row's expected easier-up may penetrate that former ranks.

There is still much conjecture as to the individual with much conjecture as to the cant inspectorable. The captains will appear before the Civil as vice Board as candidates are Capta William H. McLaughlin, of the West Turrist street station; Nicholas Brooks, of the book one Hundred and Twenty-sixth street tion; Adam A. Cross, of Eldridge street, as William S. Devery, of West Forty-search street.

atreet.
All the ward detectives who were reto patrol duty reported at their varie

It was rumored about headquarters at noon to-day, that some of the ward detective who were reduced to the ranks, would and a be retired. Mayor Grant la Going Sou Mayor Grant has announced his li-of taking a trip after the Legisla journs. He will go first to Atlan may probably go from there to be New Orieans and Jacksonville. gone about two weeks.